Hawaii Statewide Nursing Consortium RN to Bachelor of Science (HSNC RNBS) in Nursing

BS in Nursing

General Information

Program Information
The Hawaii Statewide Nursing Consortium RN to Bachelor of Science program is for associate degree nursing (ADN) graduates continuing the consortium pathway available to UH students from Maui College, Kauaʻi Community College, and Kapiʻolani Community College. The program is designed to provide an efficient bridge to the baccalaureate for the RN with an associate degree.

Admission to the nursing program is contingent upon the following:
- Timely submission of required application components;
- Successful admission to University of Hawaii at Manoa;
- Satisfactory completion of the prerequisite courses and HSNC ADN degree;
- Minimum cumulative grade point average (G.P.A.) of 2.5 in all transfer-eligible college/university credits;
- Minimum cumulative grade point average (G.P.A.) of 2.0 for all UH System coursework.

Application Deadlines
FALL ADMISSION: January 5

All application materials must be received in the Nursing Office of Student Services by these deadline dates to be reviewed. This includes the NursingCAS application and UH Mānoa System Application should the applicant not already be currently enrolled in a degree granting program or graduating prior to the prospective admission date to the program. Applications and required documents should be submitted 4-6 weeks in advance of the above given deadlines to the UH Mānoa Office of Admissions to allow for processing. Postmark dates are NOT accepted.

Prerequisite Courses
Admission into the HSNC RNBS Nursing program is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of the following coursework at application.

*These courses are cross-designated at any UH campus. UH students should see their respective advisors for more information. Non-UH students should check the UH System Course Transfer Database (http://www.hawaii.edu/transferdatabase/l) and cross-reference their equivalent courses with the UH Mānoa General Catalog for designations. Information on these requirements can be found in the UH Manoa General Catalog, UHM advising centers, and online at www.catalog.hawaii.edu. Applicants should be aware that evaluations for program admissions are subject to official evaluations by the Office of Admissions at Mānoa after having been admitted.

Viable applicants will receive final notification of the Department of Nursing Admissions Committee's decision approximately 2 months after the application deadline via postal mail. It is up to the applicant to keep the School of Nursing & Dental Hygiene Office of Student Services informed of current addresses. Admission decisions will not be discussed via email or phone.
